Member Protection Policy

What is Member Protection?

Member protection is a term used by the Australian sports industry to describe the practices and procedures that protect an organisation's members - both individual members such as players, coaches and officials, and the member organisations such as clubs and other affiliated organisations. It involves:

- protecting members from harassment, abuse, discrimination and other forms of inappropriate behaviour;
- Adopting appropriate measures to ensure the right people are involved in an organisation, particularly in relation to those involved within junior sport;
- Providing education;
- Promoting and modeling positive behaviour.

As an affiliated club of the WAFC, Aveley Junior Football Club subscribes to the AFL Member Protection Policy (www.afl.com.au/policies)
